

LONG
FURLONG BARN

exclusively yours

Thank you for taking the time to consider having your special day with us at Long Furlong Barn.

Originally, Long Furlong Barn was a grain store for the surrounding fields which have been farmed by my family for over 100 years.

The planning and renovating of the barns was overseen by my eldest son Toby, and our first ever weddings were managed by my youngest son Josh back in 2014. Ali, my daughter works alongside the venue team today and I continue to pop in from time to time to ensure everything is ticking along nicely.

We hope that you love Long Furlong Barn as much as we do.

We believe that weddings should not be complicated, and that they should be filled with love, laughter and many happy family memories for years to come.

Yours,

Peter Jenkin
